The Historical and Cultural Area of Old Town of Tlaxcala, Mexico, was declared a World Heritage site by UNESCO in 2011. This vibrant urban fabric boasts beautiful colonial architecture, narrow streets, and a rich cultural heritage. The site includes numerous landmarks such as the Ayuntamiento, Iglesia de San Francisco, and the Plaza Mayor, which are all key elements of the city's historical significance.}

Alberto Cruz

Alberto Cruz is a prominent designer and architectural consultant known for his innovative approach to urban design and sustainability. His work often integrates technology and green design principles to create spaces that are both aesthetically pleasing and environmentally responsible. Cruz has been involved in the development of several high-profile projects, including the refurbishment of historic buildings and the creation of new public spaces. His contributions to the field have been recognized with numerous awards and distinctions.